

HOW TO TREAT EVERYTHING FROM THE COMMON COLD TO THE UNCOMMON CANCER.

No, it's not a new wonder drug. But today and every day wonderful things are happening at Lahey Hitchcock Clinic, thanks to some of the area's most respected primary care physicians, and some of the world's most gifted specialists.

Whether it's a minor case of the sniffles or major surgery, you'll find the treatment you need at Lahey Hitchcock Clinic. Our network of community-based, general internists, family practice physicians and pediatricians serves communities throughout eastern Massachusetts. Every day, they offer the finest possible care for a wide range of ills.

And should you ever have a more complex problem, you'll be able to take advantage of all the specialty services at Lahey Hitchcock's Medical Centers in Burlington and Peabody. There, our 300 physicians and 3,000 nurses, therapists and other medical professionals are providing some of the world's most sophisticated treatment.
